Auxiliary Sports Board; Brett Asselstine, chairman

Asselstine reported that there is a possibility of opening the Men's Gym on Friday night, Saturday afternoon and night, and Sunday afternoon including the weight room, wrestling room, gymnasium, and the apparatus room. The cost will possibly $300 a qt.

Budget & Finance--Bonnie Kositzky, chairman

Kositzky reported that the committee received a report summarizing the expenses of the committees from the Accounting Office.

Vice President's Report

RICHARD MOVED THAT CENTRAL BOARD APPOINT JOHN ULYATT AS TRADITION'S BOARD CHAIRMAN. SECONDED BY DENNIS. MOTION PASSED (13-0-1) WITH BOWLER OPPOSED. Richard said that there were two applicants and that Ulyatt had been recommended by the Personnel Comm. composed of Richard, Bowler, and Jim Erickson, former T-Board chairman.

Student Life Committee--Worcester, chairman.

Margaret Low reported that the committee met with the deans who expressed the desire to work with the committee but not with the present resolution. Worcester sent a letter to Donna Beery of AWS presenting the resolutions and the desire to work with AWS. Jones would like to see a deadline set for AWS's completion of the resolution. The Deans' office said that the committee had not convinced them that there was a need for a change. There will be a meeting in the Dean's Office, January 22, at 4.

Student Information Committee--George Cole, chairman.

Cole stated that he didn't feel that the committee should arrange a debate regarding the proposed Student Union building until there was more interest shown by the student. Ross asked if a poll could be taken to show any interest by the students.

Centennial Committee--Jones announced that a Centennial Committee had been formed with Berna Saxton as chairman. This committee will work on the possibility of a Centennial Week sometime this spring with speakers and other appropriate functions.

Old Business

Richard reported that there have been two estimates on the ice rink. He will meet with Pantzer and Cogswell tomorrow for further discussion. It is not cold enough now to flood it without getting it fixed Richard stated. 2. Dennis asked when President Johns was going to talk to CB. Jones stated that he would ask him whenever CB wished at President Johns' convenience.

New Business

Dora Youngdahl, Knowles Hall representative, asked if there could be a price limit set on floats for the Homecoming parade. Richard said that the matter will be discussed at T-Board.
